Plenty Weapons for Celebration

NEW YORK (AP)—Maurice Cantori, 69, celebrated Richard M. Nixon's election Wednesday by stepping outside his Spanish Harlem residence and firing 10 rifle shots in the air, police said.

As people scrambled for safety, Cantori was arrested by two policemen on charges of reckless endangerment, illegally discharging a gun, possession of dangerous weapons and failing to register rifles.

Police said they searched his apartment and found another rifle, two spears, two bayonets, three knives, two axes, four boxes of ammunition and two sets of leg irons.

T-P 11-7-68